

PREPARATION FOR WORKING LIFE

3

Relationships

Name:

We all have a range of different relationships. List at least 10 people that you have a relationship with. Do not include every member of your family – think of other people as well.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Now decide whether each relationship is formal or informal. (Put the letter F or I next to each)

Which two of the following are formal relationships?

A	Uncles and nephews
B	Chief executives and company directors
C	Families who are neighbours
D	Office managers and secretaries
E	Close friends

and

Why do people get married?

Give two reasons why people may Choose to marry

1.
.....
2.
.....

Life events

Family relationships can be affected by the experiences that family members have. Some events in life are expected to happen whilst others are often unexpected. Look at the list of life events and put them into the table.

	Expected	Unexpected
Getting married
Getting a job
Winning the lottery
Becoming a parent
Losing a job
Becoming seriously ill

Can you add others to the table?

Sources of help

The following organisations can help people who are under different kinds of pressure.

Give one example of a situation these organisations can help with ..

Social Services

Citizens Advice Bureaux

Relate

The organisation which specifically helps with marriage problems is..

A	Age UK
B	Relate
C	Shelter
D	Mind